Why did Mao & Zhu start a battery business in Bangladesh?

Because Mao's family owns a battery-making company in China, the pair decided to try the same business in Bangladesh: assemble more-sustainable lithium batteries with components imported from China and sell them to local customers. "It was a crazy idea," said Zhu, the chief operating officer.

What is the interim government doing in Bangladesh?

The interim government of Bangladesh, following the unrest in the summer that resulted in the ouster of long-serving premier Sheikh Hasina, is focusing on stabilising the economy and promoting fair market practices, according to a report from LightCastle Partners published in November.

Will Bangladesh's startup ecosystem continue to thrive?

"Amidst these changes, there is a growing belief that Bangladesh's startup ecosystem will continue to thrive," the consulting firm said. Local young firms have raised close to $1 billion since 2013, it said. "In China or the US, it's very challenging to find an area with unfulfilled demand," said Mao.
