

The lead-acid battery is a type of rechargeable battery first invented in 1859 by French physicist Gaston Planté. It is the first type of rechargeable battery ever created. Compared to modern rechargeable batteries, lead-acid batteries have relatively low energy density. Despite this, they are able to supply high surge currents. These features, along with their low cost, make them ...

The lithium battery RV and camper van market is estimated to grow 64 percent more per year than the RV battery market as a whole over the next five years, indicating strong continued adoption of lithium batteries over lead-acid batteries.
